- (a) I lectured at the How We Do What we Do, Start to Finish at the meeting of the Guardian Ad Litem, in Charleston, SC on 09/18/13. The course was a luncheon wherein I spoke and shared with other Guardian Ad Litem how I gathered information, organized it for reporting and performed the duties required of the Guardian Ad Litem. It was a practical how to do the job and be proficient at it. It was an hour long session;
- (b) I also spoke at another Guardian Ad Litem luncheon regarding the collection of fees in Family Court by Guardian Ad Litem. It was just under an hour and I provided forms and suggestions to attorney GALs on how to proceed.
12. List all published books and articles you have written and give citations and the dates of publication for each.
- SC Jurisprudence: Volume 28. Fraud (1998). I contributed to this article, but did not author it. I am credited in the volume for my contribution. I did not write this!

- (a) Admitted to practice before the State Courts of SC in 1982;
- (b) Also admitted to practice before the Federal District Court in 1986.
14. Describe chronologically your legal experience since graduation from law school and include a list of all law firms with which you have been associated. Describe the general character of your practice and divide it into periods with dates if its character has changed over the years.

Out of law school I worked as an Associate for Dan M. David. That relationship became David, Lacour and Schwartz, which then became David and Schwartz. This was from 1982 until about 1992, when I became a sole practitioner at the office of David and Schwartz, where I was also an employee. The practice was always a general practice of law, wherein we handled family law and civil law suits of all kinds, as well as business matters, incorporations and wills, etc. From 1982 until 1992, the practice was about 50/50 between family law and civil law matters. My practice has remained a general practice of law, but since the late 1990s, I have done more and more family law and less civil cases. I began handling Guardian Ad Litem cases as a favor to a former Charleston County Family Court Judge, and I have been handling cases as the Guardian Ad Litem ever since, now for 20 years. Approximately 40% to 50% of my practice has become as a Guardian Ad Litem for children. I have developed a passion for easing the pain that children experience in divorce and in drawn out custody cases.

During my time as an attorney I have practiced in the Family Court, Circuit Court, appeared in the Federal Court, and the Probate Court. I have handled social security appeals for disability, and Appeals in the SC Court of Appeals and the SC Supreme Court. I briefed and argued appeals in the SC Supreme Court and the SC Court of Appeals.

- 14.(a) If you are a candidate for Family Court, please provide a brief written description of your experience within each of the following Family Court practice areas: divorce and equitable division of property, child custody, adoption, abuse and neglect, and juvenile justice. Include information about cases you have handled in each of these practice areas, or if you have not practiced in an area, describe how your background has prepared you to preside over such matters as a Family Court Judge.

I have vast experience in all areas of Family Court, including divorce and equitable distribution of property, child custody, adoption, abuse and neglect, and juvenile justice. For over 30 years now I have practiced and handled cases in all of these areas. At any given time, I may have 5 to 10 divorce cases ongoing, and at least that many, usually more, Guardian Ad Litem cases. These usually involve to some degree property division, child custody, abuse and neglect issues, and even adoption. These cases involve preparing agreements and having them approved by the court, and addressing the various legal areas of equitable distribution of property and debt, support, child custody and visitation. We prepare spread sheets on the property issues, address the best interest of the children which is always the primary goal when children are involved. With abuse and neglect cases and DSS, I have handled every aspect of those cases except prosecution of them, as I have been the Guardian Ad Litem, Attorney for the Guardian Ad Litem, and represented every named party imaginable.

As a Guardian Ad Litem, I am focused exclusively on custody and visitation. I may have as many as 15 cases ongoing presently as Guardian Ad Litem. I handle and have handled many abuse and neglect cases over the years, and handled two (2) hotly contested cases in the past two years. In the past year, I have handled or am handling two (2) adoptions as attorney for the adopting parent. My experience in these practice areas is vast. The least of the areas I have practiced in is juvenile justice, but I have handled approximately 4-8 such cases in my career and I am comfortable that I would be well equipped to handle a case in any of the above areas.

15. What is your rating, if any, by any legal rating organization, such as, Best Lawyers, Chambers, Legal 500, Martindale-Hubbell, Who's Who Legal, Super Lawyers, etc.?

18. What percentage of your practice in trial court during the past five years involved matters that went to a jury, including those that settled prior to trial?
(a) jury: 20% to 30% (all settled);
(b) non-jury: 70% to 80%.
Did you most often serve as sole counsel, chief counsel, or associate counsel in these matters? It varied. In many of the cases set for a jury trial I was a co counsel. In the majority of non jury matters I was sole counsel.
19. List five of the most significant litigated matters you have personally handled in either trial or appellate court or before a state or federal agency. Give citations if the cases were reported and describe why these matters were significant.
- (a) Gartside v Gartside, 383 SC 35; 383 Se2d 35 (Ct App 2009). It is a reported case where I sought obtained and then kept an alimony reduction. This case addressed an issue where a person seeking a reduction need not seek work outside where he resides as argued by the former spouse. I tried the case in the Family Court as well. The case made good law on alimony;
- (b) Unison v Schmidt, 339 SC 362, 529 SE2d 280 (2000). I sought cert in the Supreme Court to argue an uninsured motorist case. We had a severely injured child and we succeeded in making law as to a passenger being a permissive driver where the driver was not permissive as regards coverage for her injuries. This was what I termed before the Supreme Court, the carjacking case, I briefed and argued and was successful in over-turning the SC Court of Appeals. I was co-counsel in this case at trial, but I handled the appeal to the Supreme Court alone;
- (c) Swanson v Stratos, 350 SC 116; 564 SE2d 117 (Ct App 2002). I tried a case before the Master and successfully appealed the case to the Court of Appeals where our position was where there is a contract there can be no recovery in implied contract. I was able to reverse the Master and make law here;
- (d) Knudsen v Knudsen, 2002-DR-08-2340 June 4, 2004, I successfully defended a Motion for Superseedeas to the Court of Appeals. I represented an elderly female whose former husband was to have sold the marital home but he failed and refused to do so, and I successfully ordered its sale and got my client paid the money she was due and needed;
- (e) Todd v Todd, 2000-DR-10-4037. I handled a hotly contested divorce with an elderly abused wife. During the pendency of the case, the husband attempted to murder my client, but she survived. I successfully prevented depletion of the marital estate by the Husband, and I prevented his obtaining $100,000 of the marital estate to fund his criminal defense.

In the end, it appeared that I would not obtain the necessary vote from the legislature, so I voluntarily stepped aside.

It would be permissible to communicate with friends so they see the type of person I am, but must never get close to matters being dealt with in the court or related to any matters of the Court. Also, "friends" on line should be disclosed to counsel, if they are attorneys appearing before the Judge, and the opposing counsel is not a "friend" on line.

- I have always worked and I worked my way through high school, college and law school. I have always worked and earned my own way and I believe in people carrying their own weight. I have little compassion for those who do not support and at least attempt to support their children. I expect people to work and I expect parents to support their children. I was a victim of child abuse as a child and I am vigilant about preventing child abuse and I am very sensitive to recognition of the signs of that abuse and of the abusers. After 20 years as a Guardian Ad Litem, I believe I have gained insight necessary to be a Judge of the Family Court. I have practiced law now for over 30 years, and I am ready to give back and utilize my experience from the bench.
